Aubrey Mailloux

maillouxaubrey@gmail.com | 307-277-3152 | New York, NY | Website

EXPERIENCE

JAZZ AT LINCOLN CENTER | NEW YORK, NY | ARCHIVES INTERN | NEW YORK, NY
SUMMER 2026 – PRESENT

- Began cataloging of Jazz at Lincoln Center materials from scratch in a brand new ArchivesSpace repository. Creating cataloging manuals for future updates and as baseline for future cataloging projects.
- Processed and cataloged the Judith Rubin Collection of over 100 charcoal drawings of jazz musicians, including scanning the artworks.
- Cataloging the Bob Wilber Collection of over 1,000 pieces of sheet music.
- Creating high-quality scans of programs, photographs, and other printed matter.

CONSERVATORY OF DANCE AT PURCHASE COLLEGE, SUNY | ARCHIVES INTERN | PURCHASE, NY
FALL 2024 – SPRING 2026

- Preliminarily appraisal, development, and archival arrangement of an archive of the history of the Conservatory of Dance (COD) to promote research, preservation, and administrative efficacy.
- Compiled a list of over 250 COD performances since 1974 to assist in programming decisions and promote strong institutional memory. Created a moving image inventory of over 750 audiovisual materials in the COD Collection, including analog formats such as VHS, Hi-8, MiniDV, and open reel as well as digital files. Began centralization of this data, including uploading to server, best practice file naming, and establishing a back-up procedure.

JACOB'S PILLOW DANCE FESTIVAL | ARCHIVES & AUDIENCE ENGAGEMENT INTERN | BECKET, MA
MAY – AUGUST 2025

- Cataloged over 800 records in the linked open data platform CollectiveAccess using a modified FRBR Dublin Core model including works, productions, moving images, entities, books, and performance programs.
- Performed over 200 hours of reference work during a six-week festival, connecting patrons with relevant archival materials to deepen their understanding of dance via CollectiveAccess and Jacob's Pillow Dance Interactive. Paged materials for patrons to research within.
- Assisted in wrapping a National Endowment for the Humanities project by digitizing analog audiovisual formats including VHS and MiniDV tapes. Digitized a souvenir program of Ted Shawn and His Men Dancers ca. 1937.
- Co-curated an archival exhibit consisting of over 50 original archival objects entitled The People Make the Place: Norton Owen and Inspirations at the Pillow to be on view for 12 months as well as weekly Now Playing selections from the moving image collection relating to the performances onstage.

NEUBERGER MUSEUM OF ART | ARCHIVES INTERN | PURCHASE, NY
JANUARY 2024 – DECEMBER 2025

- Conducted provenance research for the George and Edith Rickey Collection of Constructivist Art, including research in the museum's object files, metadata addition, and compilation into dossiers.
- Processed the Roy R Neuberger Manuscripts Folio and Roy R Neuberger Awards & Honors Folio, including creating special preservation housing for rare books. Added metadata to over 30 records for the Roy R. Neuberger Birthday Book artworks.
- Processed archival records of exhibition files from the museum's fifty-year history, including arrangement, rehousing, DACS compliant finding aid creation, and entry into EmbARK.
- Digitized over 50 cassette tapes and contributed to the initiative to digitize object and artist files.

EDUCATION

Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, NY
Library and Information Science, MS | Advanced Certificate in Archives | Expected Spring 2028
Purchase College, SUNY, Purchase, NY
Bachelor of Arts, Arts Management | Bachelor of Fine Arts, Dance Performance | Conferred summa cum laude

ADDITIONAL SKILLS

ArchivesSpace, CollectiveAccess, EmbARK, | Library & Archives Cataloging | Adobe Suite: Premiere Pro, Photoshop, Bridge, InDesign | Microsoft Office Suite | Google Suite |Object Handling | WordPress, HTML | Reference Librarianship